

Hello Year 2

You can find magic wherever you look. Sit back and relax, all you need is a book.

- Dr. Seuss

From our phone calls home to parents, we know many children are continuing to read at home. This is fantastic! As most of the children have completed the books they took home from school, we thought it would be useful to share some other places where they can access a variety of reading material.

Oxford Owl <https://www.oxfordowl.co.uk/>

This website has a collection of books that are similar to the ones the children may choose from the book boxes at school.

Audible <https://stories.audible.com/start-listen>

This website does not require registration. It offers a variety of books that children can listen to and enjoy.

Poetry Archive <https://childrens.poetryarchive.org/explore/?age=251>

If you wanted to try something a bit different, you could look at the Poetry Archive and listen to famous poets reading their poems aloud.

Classroom Secrets <https://classroomsecrets.co.uk/free-home-learning-packs/>

This website does require a parent to register, but is currently free of charge. It has a reading section for each year group and includes some online comprehension activities.

Story time with Nick

<https://www.youtube.com/playlist?list=PLDe74j1F52zQ51fqNpKV07E71knNI8HF9>

Sometimes it is nice just to listen to a new story. Children can enjoy these films of well-loved stories read by Nick Cannon, a trained actor, teacher and trainer available Monday, Wednesday and Friday at 2pm.

We are looking forward to sharing books together again soon, but in the meantime, we hope you can continue to enjoy stories with your family at home!
