

Session 1

Spelling common exception words

Remember, Common Exception Words are words that aren't spelt like they sound. They are words that we meet a lot in our writing so we really need to remember how to spell them.

Practise spelling each of these words 3 times.
Look at the word,
say it,
cover it (so you can't cheat),
write it and
check (have a peep - did you get it right?).

1. poor
1. behind
1. father
1. children
1. people

Session 2

Spelling common exception words

Remember, Common Exception Words are words that aren't spelt like they sound. They are words that we meet a lot in our writing so we really need to remember how to spell them.

Practise spelling each of these words 3 times.
Look at the word,
say it,
cover it (so you can't cheat),
write it and
check (have a peep - did you get it right?).

1. sure
1. sugar
1. eye
1. kind
1. everybody

Session 3

Spelling the l sound at the end of words

Remember, there are 3 different ways of spelling the l sound at the end of words:

- le
- el
- al

Make a table like the one above.
Look at these pictures. Can you spell each thing? Put them in the correct place in the table.
The first one has been done for you.

le	el	al
		petal

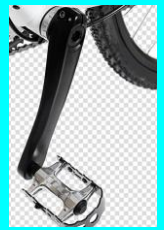

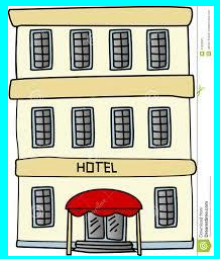

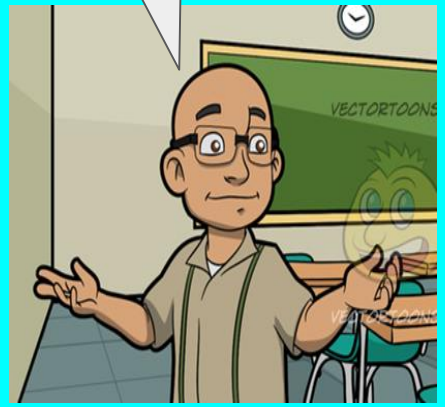

Answers on the next page.

Here are the answers!

le	el	al
table whale stable	squirrel towel hotel camel	petal pedal sandal

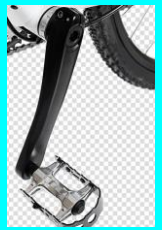

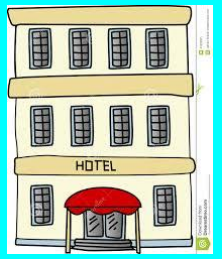

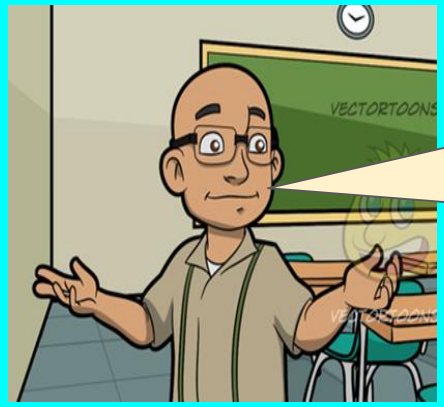

Session 4

Words containing the letters old

How many times can you spell all of these words in 2 minutes?

old told hold

gold

cold

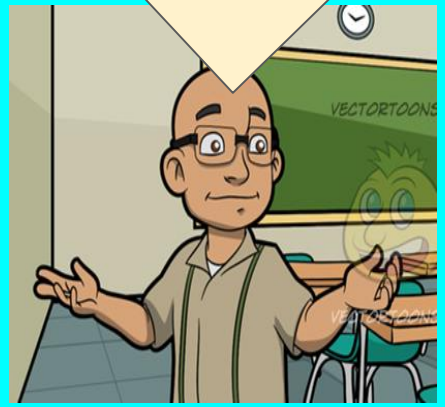

Session 5

Homophones.

Remember, homophones are words that sound the same but have different meanings and are spelt differently (like see and sea).

Ask a grown-up to read these sentences to you and see if you can copy them down spelling the words correctly.

1. I can see and hear the sea from here.
2. I knew you wanted a new book.
3. They're playing with their toys.
4. I felt very weak last weak.