

Session 5

Homophones.

Remember, homophones are words that sound the same but have different meanings and are spelt differently (like see and sea).

Copy each sentence but choose the correct homophone complete the missing word.

1. (here or hear)
   Can you _____ that dog barking?
   I'll put your coat _____ .

1. (blue or blew)
   The wind _____ stongly.
   Where is my _____ hat?

3. (too or two)
   Have you got _____ cakes?
   I like cakes _____ .

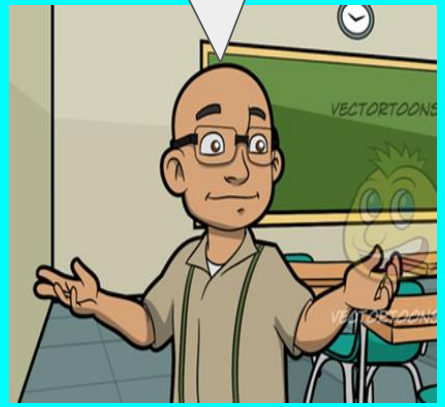

Session 2

The u sound spelt 'o'

The u sound is sometimes spelt with the letter 'o'.

Write these words in your best handwriting.
Write the letter o in a different colour.
E.g. mother

other	brother
mother	nothing
Monday	none

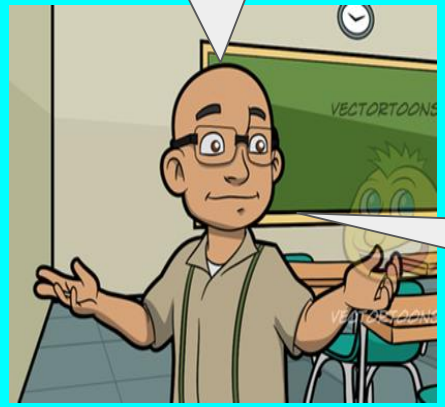

Session 3

The u sound spelt 'o'

The u sound is sometimes spelt with the letter 'o'.

There are 7 spelling mistakes in these sentences. Can you spot them all?
Copy the sentences out making sure you correct the mistakes as you go.

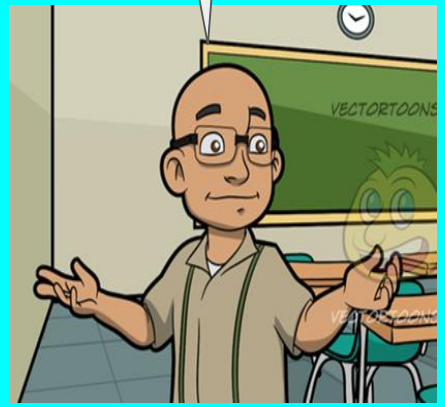

On Munday I went to visit my muther and my bruther. There was nuthing to eat in the house so I set off to see if my uther bruther had sum cakes.

Clue: The letter u has been used instead of o in some words.

Answers on the next page.

Answers!

On Monday I went to visit my mother and my brother. There was nothing to eat in the house so I set off to see if my other brother had some cakes.

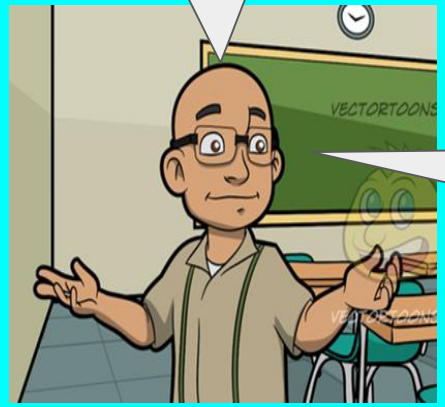

Session 4

The u sound spelt 'o'

The u sound is sometimes spelt with the letter 'o'.

Can you write 3 silly sentences?
Each one must have two of the words we have been looking at this week that have the letter o making an u sound.

other	brother
mother	nothing
Monday	none

Here is an example:

On Monday my dog did nothing except watch TV!

Session 5

Spelling the l sound using il at the end of words

We have learnt so far that we can spell the l sound at the end of of words using le, el and al. There is also another way - il ! This spelling is not in many words.

Look at these words - all ending with il.
Use 3 different colours (you could use a pencil and different colour pens) to rainbow write each of these words.

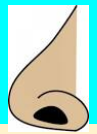

stencil

pencil

nostril

gerbil

evil

fossil

pupil

April