Can you be a detective and see how many ‘or’ and ‘ew’ words are in this story?

The storm was getting worse and the boat was heading north towards the port. A few of the crew were eating their chicken stew when they heard the loud horn from the captain. This told the crew the port was in view. They put down their forks and flew out of their seats. They knew it would only be a short time until they arrived.

Silly sentences!

Write some silly sentences of your own using words with either an ‘or’ or ‘ew’ sound in.

Here’s an example…
A bird flew across the sky in a storm. He was chewing a horn.

Remember to start each sentence with a capital letter and end with a full stop.
